

I enjoy listening to K-LOVE along with many of my friends. The service provided by K-LOVE is important as it provides an alternative to our local radio stations, many of which do not have programming that families can enjoy together. If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster that was providing other programming, It would be a great loss to our community and would be missed by a huge number of people.